Hague, Sept. 16, N. S. Letters from the Spaniſh Camp before Mirandola of the Firſt of this Month give an Account, that the Garriſon of Mirandola having no Powder left for making a longer Defence, offered to capitulate the Day before; but the Count de Maceda, who commands the Spaniards, having ſignified to the Governour, that he and his Garriſon muſt yield themſelves Priſoners of War, they ſubmitted to it, and the ſame Day the Spaniſh Grenadiers took Poſſeſſion of the Place. The Imperialiſts continue in their Quarters in Tyrol, and in the Country at the Head of the Lake of Garda. The Duke de Montemar was making the neceſſary Preparations for beſieging Mantua, but it will take up ſome Time before all can be ready. Advices from the Upper Rhine of the 10th Inſtant, left Prince Eugene ſtill with his Army in the Camp near Heidelberg, and the other Bodies of the Imperialiſts continued in their former Quarters; the moſt conſiderable of thoſe Bodies, in Number about 40000 Men, being encamped near Mentz, on this Side the Rhine. The main Body of the French, commanded by the Marſhal de Coigny, having removed from their Camp at Winolſheim, where they had lain almoſt three Months, had poſted themſelves on the riſing Grounds extending from Oſtoffen to Weſtoffen, with their Right at Oſtoffen, and their Left towards Gunderſheim, the Marſhal having his Head Quarters at Bermerſheim.
